How to vote in B.C.

ELECTIONS BC
A non-partisan Office of the Legislature

There are lots of ways to vote in a provincial election in B.C.

You can vote...

At advance voting

- From 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. (local time) on the Saturday and Sunday two weeks before General Voting Day, and the Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday before General Voting Day.
- All advance voting places are wheelchair accessible.

At any voting place in the province

- B.C. voters can vote at any advance or general voting place in the province under absentee rules.
- Voting places will be available at elections.bc.ca, published in community newspapers, and included on Where to Vote cards sent to voters.

On General Voting Day

- General voting places are open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. (Pacific time).

At any district electoral office

- From when an election is called to 4 p.m. on General Voting Day.

By Mail

- Ask for a Vote by Mail package from before an election is called until 4 p.m. on General Voting Day.
- The package will be mailed to you or can be picked up at the district electoral office.
- The completed package must be returned no later than 8 p.m. on General Voting Day.

Remember to bring ID and your Where to Vote card when you vote

Voter Registration

- Before an election is called, register online at elections.bc.ca or by calling 1-800-661-8683. You can also register when you vote.
